6. Fraudulent statements made on application documents may result in denial of admission to the University.

Miscellaneous Notes

If there are any letters or characters in the name or address of the applicant that cannot be displayed by computers, they will be handled on the admission ticket or examination results by using letters or characters that can be displayed by Japanese computers. After entrance into the university, for requests to utilize letters or characters in one's name or address that are outside the processing capacity of Japanese computers, please consult with the Office of International Exchange Center.

The Founding Spirit

According to the teachings of Tenrikyo religion, God the Parent created humankind and the world out of a desire to have humankind share in the "Joyous Life." Oyasama, the Foundress of Tenrikyo, revealed the existence of God the Parent, clarifying the truth that human beings are all brothers and sisters, and demonstrating a way of life of helping one another through the path of the "Divine Model." The mission of the University, based upon the teachings of Oyasama, is to cultivate human resources that will contribute to the construction of a world based on the "Joyous Life."
